

Let's celebrate Hometown Pride!

Jacksonville Day

at the

Illinois State Fair

Wednesday, August 16

What is it?

- ✓ Hometown Pride is an opportunity to market our community to thousands of families at the Illinois State Fair on Wednesday, August 16.
- ✓ ONE DAY as our community's day – JACKSONVILLE DAY!
- ✓ Hometown Pride is located in a high traffic area where all fairgoers have easy access.
- ✓ The location/space rental is free – in the Heartland; east side of Fairgrounds (located near Gate 2).
- ✓ A large tent (30 x 50) for our exhibitors.
- ✓ A stage and sound system for our entertainment.
- ✓ Gate admission and parking available for all staff working that day.
- ✓ HOURS: 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, August 16.

Who?

- ✓ Businesses, non-profits, cultural, and civic organizations with information to share about how our community is a great place to live, work, and play.
- ✓ Entertainment, such as: bands, games, historical facts, contests, giveaways and other great "eye openers" – basically, any type of entertainment that will showcase our community the best.
- ✓ Anyone interested in helping out that day!

How?

- ✓ For more information on how to be a part of Jacksonville Day at the Illinois State Fair, please contact the Jacksonville Area Chamber of Commerce: 217-245-2174 or chamber@jacksonvilleareachamber.org

